Success at the RIBA National and International Awards Dinner 2007

Foster + Partners scooped two awards at the RIBA National and International Awards Dinner which took place on Friday at the London Hilton Hotel. Dresden Station redevelopment received an RIBA European Award and will join 18 other national and European winners to form the midlist for the coveted RIBA Stirling Prize, to be announced later this year. Hearst Tower in New York won an RIBA International Award. The RIBA awards are a celebration of excellence in architecture and over 500 projects by RIBA Members across the world were entered in this years programme.
